

“All I have learned,
I learned from books.”
~ Abraham Lincoln

The more that you read,
the more things you know.

The more that you learn,
the more places you'll go.

~ Dr. Seuss

The background is white and filled with numerous gold stars of various sizes. Some stars are large and have a glittery texture, while others are small and simple outlines. Several thin, curved gold lines are scattered across the top half of the image, some with small gold circles attached to them, resembling strings or orbits.

Kindness Counts
More Than Gold Stars.
