

Christmas Food and Drink Trivia

1. What creamy holiday drink is made with milk, cream, sugar and eggs?
2. What nuts are traditionally roasted over an open fire at Christmas?
3. Which country is credited with creating the gingerbread house?
4. What Christmas Eve seafood dinner is a tradition in many Italian-American families?
5. What is a bûche de Noël?
6. What tall, dome-shaped sweet bread with candied fruit comes from Milan?
7. What German Christmas bread, dusted with powdered sugar, is famously made in Dresden?
8. What is traditionally hidden in a British Christmas pudding for good luck?
9. What surprising ingredient did mince pies originally contain?
10. What hot spiced drink is named after an Old English toast meaning "be well"?
11. What hot spiced wine is sold at German Christmas markets?
12. What corn-dough dish wrapped in husks do many Mexican families make together at Christmas?
13. What paper tubes that "pop" when pulled are set at British Christmas dinner tables?
14. In Denmark, what do you win if you find the whole almond in the Christmas rice pudding?
15. What does a traditional Japanese Christmas cake look like?

Christmas Food and Drink Trivia: Answers

1. Eggnog
2. Chestnuts
3. Germany
4. The Feast of the Seven Fishes
5. A French Christmas cake rolled and decorated to look like a Yule log
6. Panettone
7. Stollen
8. A silver coin
9. Minced meat
10. Wassail
11. Glühwein
12. Tamales
13. Christmas crackers
14. A small prize
15. A sponge cake layered with whipped cream and topped with strawberries

